

Singye

+97517707070

4 Days Trip

Jan 13, 2026 - Jan 16, 2026

- per person

This cultural tour through the mystical Western valleys of Bhutan is an ideal introduction to the Dragon Kingdom. Experience Bhutanese hospitality, admire the ever-changing landscapes, and immerse yourself in Bhutan's rich Buddhist culture & heritage. Highlights of the tour include Ta Dzong Museum, Rimpung Dzong with its wooden cantilevered bridge and the infamous Taktsang Monastery (Tiger's Nest) in the beautiful Paro Valley. Other highlights in Thimphu include, the National Memorial Chorten, 12th century Changangkha Temple and the National Library exhibiting ancient scriptures in Bhutan's capital Thimphu.

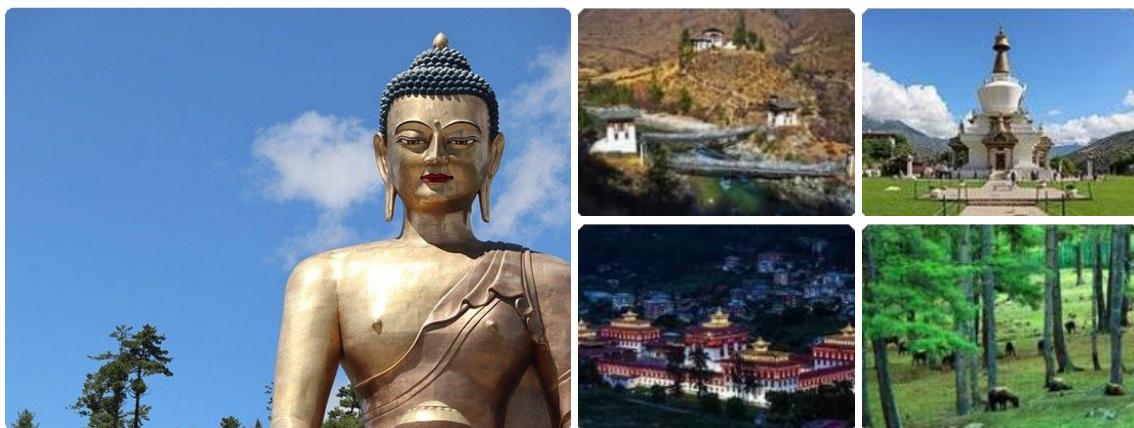

January 13 - Day 1 Arrive Paro-Thimphu

Welcome to Bhutan, Land of Thunder Dagon. Your Journey begins flying on Druk Air or Bhutan national Airlines. You will meet our representative from Bhutan Trawang Tara Travel at Paro Airport. We then transfer to Thimphu, the capital of Bhutan, passing through hills and some astounding countryside. Thimphu is situated in a large valley traversed by the Wangchu River and overshadowed by high peaks. En-route- view Tachogang monastery “temple of excellent horse” built by Thangthong Gyalpo“ the (Iron chain builder in Bhutan and visit the Iron Chain Bridge which is one of the most visible ancient craft work in the middle Ages.) before reaching to Chunzom. Afternoon, we visit some cultural sites and walk through the main street of Thimphu. Drive to visit Kuensel Phodrang to visit the Buddha Statue, symbolizing indestructibility and one of the most religious monuments built in recent times. The view of Thimphu valley from the Kuenselphodrang is spectacular. Later we visit, the national Memorial Chorten, built in honor of the third King of Bhutan, Jigme Dorji Wangchuck. Elderly devotees flock throughout the day to circumambulate the stupa and turn the prayer wheels.

After that, drive to Takin Enclosure to see Bhutan's National Animal (ZOO). Take a short trip Tashicho Dzong, the fortress of glorious religion,” seat of the national government and the central monk body.

Towards evening, join us on a special meal with authentic and organic cuisines from Bhutan at a popular local restaurant. You can even try local ‘ara’ a local rice wine from Bhutan over dinner.

Accommodation in Thimphu

We offer the best 3* hotels in Bhutan however hotels are subject to availability on the time of booking.

Hotel Tashi Yoedling

Thimphu, Thimphu, Bhutan

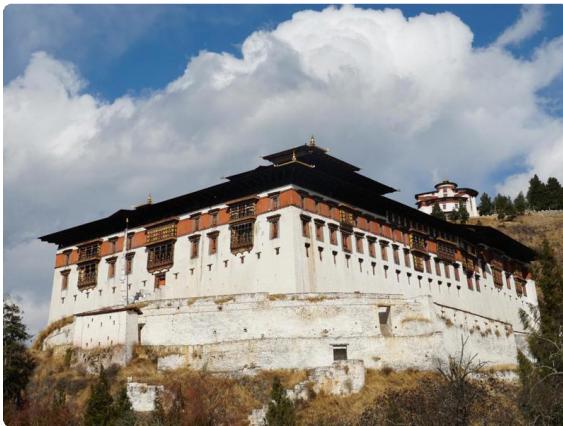

Hotel Bhutan Home

Deki Lam, Thimphu, Thimphu, Bhutan

January 14 - Day 2 Thimphu-Paro

Visit CSI market, a marketplace where you get all products made in Bhutan. You can also enjoy a blissful walk through the streets of Thimphu valley before we depart for Paro. Paro valley retains its bucolic nature in spite of the existence of development projects. Fields of green or brown covers most of the valley floor while hamlets and isolated farms dot the landscape. In Paro, we check into our hotel, and then visit Paro Ta Dzong, a museum dedicated to showcase historical artifacts of bhutan since the 1900s. After this, visit Paro Rinpung dzong located just few minutes drive below the museum.

Accommodation in Paro

We offer the best 3* hotels in Bhutan however hotels are subject to availability on the time of booking.

Khangkhu Resort

Khangkhu Wangchang, Paro, Paro, ට ට
+975 8 272 393

January 15 - Day 3 Taktsang Hike

Drive to the north of Paro valley to Ramthangkha and hike to visit the world famous, Taktsang monastery, the trail climbs through beautiful pine forest, many of trees festooned with moss and an occasional grove of fluttering prayers flags. This monastery is one of the most venerated and sacred of all Buddhist sights around the world, the legend has it that Guru Rinpoche (founding saint of Buddhism) flew from eastern Bhutan on a tigress and meditated for three months. After visiting the monastery, walk down to cafeteria for lunch. Afternoon walk down to the base and drive to Kyichu Temple. Kyichu temple is one of the oldest temples built in Bhutan and is dedicated to Guru Rinpoche.

Accommodation in Paro

We offer the best 3* hotels in Bhutan however hotels are subject to availability on the time of booking.

Khangkhu Resort

Khangkhu Wangchang, Paro, Paro, ට ට
+975 8 272 393

January 16 - Day 4 Paro-Departure

After breakfast drive to the airport for flight to your onward destination. We bid farewell and wish ourselves in the hope to meet again. We hope you cherish this special trip in your life and nourish yourself with all the positive energy accumulated through the journey.

Tashi Delek.

